The following is a chronology of some of the events associated with the two referenced cessations orders. In addition to the items listed, there have been numerous phone calls and electronic mail messages.

June 28, 2006	Inspection conducted.
June 30, 2006	Cessation order MC2006-03-01-01 issued. Operator required to submit complete SMO (or LMO as appropriate) by July 17, 2006, and a surety after the SMO is determined complete but no later than August 7, 2006.
July 21, 2006	Deadline extended to July 31 for submitting SMO
Aug. 2, 2006	Received SMO.
Aug. 8, 2006	Notified operator that SMO was deficient. About this time, the abatement date was extended to September 1 for submitting a complete SMO and September 15 to submit the surety ($12000).
Sept. 7, 2006	Received revised SMO.
Sept. 29, 2006.	Abatement date extended to October 6, 2006, for submitting maps and the surety.
Oct. 6, 2006	Abatement date extended to October 16, 2006.

Dec. 21, 2006	Abatement date extended to January 16, 2007.
Feb. 20, 2007	Abatement date extended to March 16, 2007.
About March 5, 2007	Received certificate of liability insurance indicating there might be a reclamation surety.
March 16, 2007	Justin Farley comes to the Division office and signs reclamation contract.
March 19, 2007	CO extended to April 2, 2007. Letter sent explaining that the Division needs the original surety document.
April 6, 2007	MC2007-03-01-01 issued for failing to abate MC2006-03-07-01.
April 11, 2007	Division receives signed return receipt but with no date indicating when the operator received it.
April 23, 2007	The Division suggests the operator could sign a payment schedule and make payments toward the surety. Division receives e mail agreeing to payment schedule.
April 25, 2007	The database says payment schedule sent to operator. Letter was dated April 25, but it was last modified (and probably was sent) April 27.
April 30, 2007	Operator receives payment schedule.
May 2, 2007	Division receives signed payment schedule and first payment.
